OPPOSITION TO TRY TO PREVENT INCORPORATION ELECTION

PETITION IS SIGNED BY 65 RESIDENTS OF FIRE DISTRICT AREA

Richmond Will Report Upon Conference With Dis't. Attorney Tuesday

As the possibility of Niles becoming an incorporated city comes nearer and nearer to a state of reality, opponents of the issue begin to sit up and take notice and the latest news is that when the petition is presented to the supervisors asking for an election on the question, another like paper will be presented asking that body to prevent the referendum, thus nipping the whole thing in the bud so to speak.

War has been declared and the hat is in the ring.

All of which means that good men and true will rally to the flag and there'll be a hot time in the old town the night the votes are actually cast.

At Tuesday's meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, Dr. Chas. H. Law, who submitted the petition for an election on incorporation to the meeting the week before, again brought that paper before the organization and displayed 65 signatures instead of the necessary 50, these names appearing in another column of The Township Register.

Objection was raised to one name in the list, the fact being brought out that J. C. Shinn did not live in the district referred to in the petition. It was declared in return that Mr. Shinn owns considerable property in said district and would therefore be eligible for any increased taxes, etc., in case the area becomes incorporated and was hence entitled to sign the petition. However, Dr. Law agreed, to avoid controversy that Mr. Shinn's name could be removed from the petition and there would still be 64 left, fourteen more than the required 50.

Opposing ranks declared their intentions of asking the supervisors not to hold the election. One of the objections voiced was that if the town becomes incorporated in the near future, the new city will have to stand the expense of the Clarke bridge to be re-built in the canyon and the construction of the Alvarado-nursery road.

In reply, it has been pointed out that in case a county road runs through an incorporated area, the county can sometimes be prevailed upon to bear the cost.

However, even admitting that the present is not the propitious time to press the matter of incorporation, believers in the cause insist that it is not too early to begin a campaign of education among the residents of the district who will have to vote upon the matter.

As it is, few of the facts are known and considerable publicity, public speaking, etc., will be necessary before the public in general is enlightened enough to vote intelligently. Ad-

A TRAVELOGUE!

Faring forth on the great adventure, two flaming youths—Ralph Neves, aged 12, and Mike Delucchi, aged 13, left Hayward Tuesday afternoon, hitting south on a supposedly long, long hitch hike, intending to secure jobs eventually and try out the glamorous experience of paddling their own canoes.

But nine chances to ten, it was something besides canoes that got paddled.

Having travelled all the long and dangerous journey from Hayward to Decoto, and becoming footsore and weary, with a gnawing emptiness in their stomachs, they appeared at the door of Mrs. Guiteriz in Decoto and begged food. Being a woman of observation and sound judgment, she entertained the young adventurers until Constable Manuel J. Bernardo arrived and promptly returned them to their homes.

Neves resides with his aunt, Rose Ray, at 311 Willow street, and Delucchi with his family at 163 Princton street.

HALLOWE'EN BALL TO BE GIVEN IN NEWARK, OCT. 27

Bluebird Club Gives Dance For Benefit of Xmas Cheer for Poor

Approximately 550 children will be made happy at Christmas time as a result of the annual Halloween Masuerade ball to be given by the Newark Bluebird club at the Newark Pavilion on the 27th of this month.

This organization has earned a unique place for itself in the township and has accomplished some of the most worthwhile projects ever sponsored in this part of the county. It is made up of a group of employed girls and women who devote a large part of their spare time to this philanthropic work. They have helped materially with every welfare, civic and charitable program promoted in their community.

The yearly Halloween Ball has come to be an event looked forward to by young and old. Last year's celebration brought a merry Christmas to 456 children and this year 550 will share in the cheer to be provided by the Bluebirds.

At a meeting held this week final plans were made. Miss Lida Francis is general chairman and is assisted by the president, Mrs. Emily Rieder; Violet Manley, Mabel Callow, Beatrice Miller, Francis Turnbow, Rose Santos, Elsie Mikklesen, Julia Ruschin, Margaret Laudenschlager, Mildred Blacow, Dorothy Gibson, Delphine Costa, Marie Dutra and May Berlin.

Patients at Hospital Aid Hoover Campaign

A local unit of the Republican War Veterans' League has been formed at the U. S. Veterans Hospital at Livermore to devote its efforts to reaching friends by mail in behalf of the Hoover-Curtis ticket. Arising from their hospital cots and gathering in the assembly hall, the men elected a president and signed up 50 members, all patients and world war veterans. This letter system is an unusual sort of a campaign system, but the members who are still paying the price for the world war can make themselves useful in no other way.

A KNIFE IN THE BACK.

KNIFED in the house of its friends. Incorporation Petition was threatened with the tragic death of being laid on the table at the last meeting of the Chamber of Commerce. To be laid on the table is the method used to kill a measure, when opposition lacks courage to say in good English, "I'm against this measure, and I don't care who knows it."

But the petition is still intact, containing the names of sixty-five progressive citizens who stand for a bigger, better, busier Niles—men and women who are willing to pay ten dollars or a hundred dollars more taxes each year, if that will be necessary under local government, that they may enjoy police protection, better lighting facilities, sanitary service and innumerable community benefits that are foreign to us in Niles, lacking as we do now the power to function in municipal matters. Sixty-five names there are on this petition—many more than are necessary to call an election to determine how the voters stand on this mooted question of autonomy—men and women who have the courage to stand out against a handful of reactionaries who insist that because Niles has been a wide place in the road for tweny-years that it will always be that way, and they want it that way, because they imagine that as a village, and not as a city, taxes may be ten dollars a year less—and ten dollars to them look like a million to the average man, who believes that to make money you must spend it first.

The Register again commends the stand of Dr. Law. If we had half a dozen men of his caliber, Niles would not be struggling now for a place in the sun with the odds against it—it would have arrived years ago, and for the past year would have been enjoying the growth that has marked its sister city to the north—Hayward—not loitering about on the highway, with talk as the only stock in trade.

But the fight has just started. It will win, and as the opposition believes it will win if put to a vote, so moves for delay. Delay failing—and it will fail—then the opposition will bring influence, such as it may have, upon the board of supervisors—to deny the sponsors of the petition the right to determine, by popular vote, just what kind of government and conditions they may wish to live under.

In this it will fail. The board cannot deny the right of a people for self-determination. To sustain the validity of that principle the United States entered the world war and the blood of this nation ran like rivers through the lowlands of Flanders.

No, the board will not go that far to throttle a people. It is the right of those who prefer no government at all to beat incorporation at the polls, and if they can do this, the Register can show good sportsmanship, and will salute them as better generals in the field of politics than it has proved to be.

Mr. Kirk and two or three others are fighting in the open. We respect them for it. But for the man who gets up in the Chamber of Commerce and endorses the measure and then goes down a dark alley to stick a knife in its back—well, the writer can not quite express in the written word his contempt for treachery.

On to Incorporation! On to progress. Let forwardness, thrift, industry, civic wholesomeness join hands with order and intelligence and make Niles what it should have been years ago, a manufacturing city seething with activity, happy in its civic virtue, respected by visitors and honored by all men.

IRVINGTON CHURCH TO HEAR VISITORS

HAYWARD EDITOR DIES.

THE writer is saddened this week by the death of a personal friend, an honored member of the Fourth Estate, Colin Dyment, publisher of the Hayward Journal.

Last Wednesday we had the pleasure of talking shop with Mr. Dyment at his office in Hayward. He was apparently a well man and nothing in his speech nor his general demeanor betrayed the slightest suspicion that even then the grim messenger was beckoning.

ever so gently, just outside the editorial sanctum door, waiting only for the veteran editor to finish his task of the week, before carrying his spirit to that great unknown, through which veil no human eye has ever penetrated.

Friday, Dyment was at work, finishing up the details of the week's edition of the Journal. That evening he was taken ill with influenza, and the next morning he was dead.

It brings home to us with peculiar force, the uncertainty of tenure here—and how, if we were half as wise as we would have the world believe, preparation for this eventuality would have been going on for years and years, that in the meeting with our Maker no great fear should oppress our expiring hour.

Dyment was a good man—fair in his dealings with the public and his associates, and considerate of those who worked with him on the paper. He was a kindly man of great sympathetic understanding, and would never wound by word or pen. Endowed with rare intellect, he was at once a fluent talker and a journalist of rank. For many years a member of the faculty of University of Oregon, he understood young people and loved them. Jealous of his personal conduct, he was always an example of the best in mature man. His students went out into the newspaper world with training in morals and integrity in the same fine degree that they went forth masters of English and composition.

The Register offers its condolence to Mrs. Dyment and in this hour of great oppression and grief, may there be one ray of joy to sustain her—the knowledge that her husband was honored by the profession, loved by those who knew him well, and respected by everyone who met him.

"THE SQUALL" IS SENSATIONAL SHOW AT GEARY THEATER

On Monday evening, October 29th, the much-talked-of and highly sensational comedy drama of fiery Spanish passions, "The Squall," will be disclosed at the Geary Theater, San Francisco. This daring play ran for nearly a year in London and for more than one yeor in New York City. In the latter metropolis it was hailed as one of the most daring offerings of a season of stage realism.

"The Squall" is said to be a passionate panotama of the age-old conflict between love and lust, infatuation and devotion. It is likewise credited with being a powerful tale of the forbearance of a wife and mother in face of the flagrant infidedities of her husband and son.

Nubi, the sensuous Gypsy beauty, who deliberately wrecks the peaceful Spanish household, will be played by Suzanne Caubaye, who played the original in New York and scored such a tremendous success there.

Bertha Mann and Charles Brokaw will be the other two featured players, besides an excellent supporting cast.

"The Squall" will be at the Geary theater for but a brief engagement with the regular Wednesday and Saturday matinees.

"The Royal Family" ends its engagement at the Geary theater Saturday, October 27.

NILES TO HAVE NEW CLUB FOR CHILD WELFARE

All Interested Will Be Invited to Join New Organization

Organization of another Child Welfare group, or rather changing the Woman's Civic Club of Niles into such a body, is being contemplated, according to Mrs. William Moore, president. Date for meeting and reorganization will be announced in the near future.

So many women have become interested in the work for the Children's Home just established in Niles that it is felt an organization open to all who would care to take part would be advisable. It has been suggested by officals of the Children's Department of the Welfare Board that each town organize such a club. In some cases, clubs already established are forming sections which will have as their specific project the welfare work. All those innterested in joining the new body should confer with Mrs. Moore.

Mrs. J. D. Gomes has been confined to her bed with a severe cold this past week.

La Jolla— Coast Boulevard, Coast Boulevard South and section of Ocean Street will be concreted.

The Story of a Trap Door That Proved to Be a Trap---For Two

Seemingly artless confession of one pal about an agreement he and another had, to furnish, one the mash and the other the still, with a fifty-fifty break on the profits, resulted in the discovery of said still on the property of Roque Roderiquez and his consequent citation to appear before the superior court along with Santiago Duperoir, the informant, both men being from Decoto.

Roderiquez, appearing before Judge J. A. Silva, in Niles Tuesday afternoon was also held to answer to the superior court on a $1,000 bail, on a charge of possession of marijuana, a Mexican dope weed.

It seems that officers entered the dwelling of Duperoir recently and found 16 gallons of liquor and a quantity of mash.

"Where do you get this stuff?" they asked.

"Don't get, I make it," was the reply.

"Where is your still?"

"I haven't any"—then followed the story of how he and one Roderiquez had made an agreement that one would furnish the mash, one the still, and they split the profits. Duperoir gave the officers directions of how to locate the Roderiquez house, and the trap-door beneath which was located the still.

After preliminary hearing they were both held over to the superior court on $1.000 bond.

POSTERS ANNOUNCE P.T.A. WHIST PARTY

Posters announcing the benefit whist party to be given by the Parent-Teacher Association of the Niles Grammar school at the school Friday evening, Nov. 2, at 8 o'clock, have been placed around town and tickets are now on sale.

In spite of the fact that the association decided not to solicit the local merchants for prizes, a number have been donated and several others are to be bought. Persons attending the party will not only be helping a worth-while cause but those holding high scores will receive some valuable trophies.

The annual card party is the only means the association has of raising necessary funds to carry on the work they sponsor for the welfare of the school and the children of the community. The cafeteria with free meals for needy children, a fund to buy a motion picture machine and incidental expenses of the organization will benefit by the proceeds from the party.

She spends his earnings wisely

MAN earns and woman spends. For many years this has been the popular plan in the American home. And in most cases it is a very good arrangement.

Too seldom, however, does the wife-and-mother receive due credit for her part in the enterprise. Earning a comfortable income today is a mighty fine accomplishment—"a man's job," sure enough. But the wise investment of the family funds is also far from child's play. This most often is Mother's task, and she deserves a medal for her able handling of it.

Women as a rule are good buyers, because they study their problems. They budget their resources, adjust their purchasing schedule to the budget, and buy carefully.

The best help they get in marketing comes from the ads in their home newspaper. They find that intelligent study of ads means economy of money and time.

The woman in your home knows how true this is!

HEALTH WORK IN THE SOUTH TOLD AT TOYAN MEET

"Health Work Among Southern Mountaineers" was the topic discussed by Mrs. Alma Inman Parker at the meeting of Toyan Branch of the Baby Hospital Association held at the home of Mrs. W. H. Ford Monday afternoon. Examples of the need of health work, foundation of various agencies in the mountain sections of the south and the value of the residents of these isolated regions to the nation as a whole were points illustrated.

Plans for the annual bazaar to be held in Oakland Dec. 8 and 9 were made as were plans for selling the Japanese brooms from which the group hopes to make a part of the $500 set as the year's goal and to be used to furnish one room in the Baby Hospital building in Oakland.

The next meeting will be held at the home of the Misses Gallegos in Mission San Jose on November 12, at 2 o'clock.

The afternoon was spent in sewing under the direction of the chairman, Mrs. F. M. Hudson, after which the hostess served an ice course.

Open Forum

Newark, Calif., October 8, 1928.
Editor Register,
Niles, Calif.

Dear Sir: Your remarks concerning the Calaveras Dam are especially interesting to the people of this vicinity.

We hope there may be no loss of life connected with it, as the financial loss since the Spring Valley diverted our water has been incalculable.

Strange to say, the people did not realize what was to be the result when the water was taken. Only one man, a Mr. Thompson, a resident of Newark, and a civil engineer, formerly of New York, knew what would happen. He said to my husband: Mr. Haley, you farmers are crazy to let the water company take the water from Alameda creek. It will ruin this valley." His words were prophetic.

My husband came to this neighborhood in 1852 from Canada and I came in 1876. So I am acquainted with the facts. Up to the time of the diversion of our water, the sloughs had water all the year for the stock, and even in dry years there were unfailing springs and irrigation was unheard of. Now all has changed.

Several artesian wells in the vicinity went dry and the water level fell to such an extent that the wells had to be deepened, and now, since the underground reservoirs are empty, the salt water from the bay is seeping into them. One man, who farms several thousand acres here, had five wells which he used for irrigation. He found that fields of alfalfa and strawberries were dying and discovered that the water was salt. Last year he bored a deep well, putting in two pipes and filling the space between with cement to keep the salt water out. This well cost over $1000.00. This year, he found that he must have more water and bored to a depth of several hundred feet without finding any. He moved to another locality where he found a good flow but it was salt, so he went much deeper and found good water but the cost of the two borings was $2500.00.

Then the Pacific Gas and Electric charged $550.00 for putting in additional poles and wires, thus making the cost $3050.00.

One man in the neighborhood, who has ten acres, has recently spent $1500.00 trying to reach good water, without success.

The water company took the water without one dollar of compensation, and your predecessor, Mr. Runkle, made a good fight against the company, and I believe some suits are still pending but, as was said in Washington, at the time of the Sinclair acquittal, it is "hard to convict several million dollars."

Farm relief seems to be the slogan of the hour and surely the farmers who are suffering from the ills of which I have spoken, should have their taxes reduced instead of being increased every year. When San Francisco and Oakland have their own water supply, surely we might have ours restored.

Very truly yours,
Annie Barclay Haley.

OPPOSITION TO

vocates of incorporation believe that if the election is declared several months should intervene in order that this educational campaign may be carried on satisfactorily.

At next Tuesday's meeting, Supervisor Ralph Richmond is to present a report, after a conference with the district atorney as to what is the next step to take.

The procedure outlined here-to-fore is that as soon as the petition is signed, it will be forwarded to the supervisors. They will set a date for a hearing, this date to be one of the regular meeting days of that body and due notice shall be made in the public press of said hearing.

When the day of the hearing comes, opponents and advocates may appear to show cause why the election shall or shall not be held.

It will be up to the supervisors to vote after hearing all the evidence whether the election shall be held or not. If they decide to hold said election, then they shall fix the boundaries of the area to be incorporated and all residents within that boundary shall be notified of same.

The fact that the opposition declares openly that it will carry on active warfare against the movement is challenge enough to those who believe that local government is the only hope for growth and expansion of this community.

"Buy Brooms for Better Babies" Is Slogan of Toyon Branch Campaign

It has been said that Americans contrive to get the least possible beauty with the maximum cost while the Japanese contrive to get the maximum of beauty with the minimum cost, which is indeed true when it comes to brooms. Brooms of soft cocoa threads, gleaming copper wires and artistic bamboo handles, decorated with brightly-colored silk tassels and real Chinese money. Brooms for the hearth, for the porch, for the stairway, for cleaning the walls or the garden walks. Brooms that fairly chase the dust and lint from nook and cranny. Brooms that are light to handle and beautiful to look upon.

Buy a broom and better a baby.

All of which is by way of introduction of the campaign being put on by Toyan Branch of the Baby Hospital Association preliminary to the annual bazaar which is to be held in Hotel Oakland, December 8 and 9. At this yearly event, the local branch will have a broom booth where will be sold these attractive and useful Japanese brooms. Fifty per cent af the selling price goes to the Baby Hospital and if 200 brooms are sold about $150 will be the net profits for the group.

Orders are now being taken and members of Toyan Branch are distributing the brooms throughout the community. All housewives are advised to place their orders as there is not an unlimited supply of these ornamental and necessary articles.

By experiment they have been found to be much better for bare floors than the ordinary household broom. The fact that they can be washed without injury to themselves together with their extreme light weight, makes them ideal for wall brooms.

Your fireside won't be complete without one of them.

And what lovely Christmas gifts or bridge prizes.

Besides—one of these brooms upon your hearth or beside your door is like the Red-Cross sticker in your window—it means you've done your bit.

And remember the Baby Hospital is founded upon the principle that is the newest phase of health work—a place where middle class people can secure medical treatment at a cost in proportion to their income—where those not eligible nor desiring to accept charity can receive the same highgrade attention for which only the very wealthy can pay.

The very rich can pay for the best and the very poor have it given to them. With few exceptions there is no place where those in between can get what they need. The Baby Hospital is one of these exceptions.

When you aid this institution, you are making a place for your own—a place where you can receive for your children the best there is, at a price you can afford.

Don't buy a broom. Buy two of them!

HIGH SCHOOL IS ADJOURNED FOR ANOTHER WEEK

Six Grammar Schools Also Closed for Week's Vacation

Pupils of the Washington Union highschool assembled Monday morning after a holiday of several days last week, only to find that so many absences were recorded due to the influenza epidemic that they were dismissed for another week.

Students will report again next Monday.

That influenza is spread through a germ is common knowledge but many persons evidently do not realize the importance of this fact, since those having all the sympathy of contagious colds appear on the streets and in public meetings where they expose others to this malady.

Acording to local doctors and other health workers, all persons having a severe cold should isolate themselves as much as possible and in case of a temperature should remain in bed.

Prompt attention when the cold first appears will avoid complications as the particular kind of influenza going the rounds does not seem to be of the deadly variety.

Five of the grammar schools of this distirct were closed this week on account of the influenza epidemic, about 20 per cent of the pupils being absent. Schools closed are Decoto, Centerville, Newark, Alviso and Mission San Jose. Niles, Alvarado and Irvington schools have not had enough illness to warrant stopping.

Pupils will report Monday and it will be announced then whether a longer vacation will be declared for the purpose of preventing the spread of the epidemic.

Warm Springs school is closed because of a broken pump and consequent lack of water.

Twenty-five women of the Niles Congregational church were entertained last Wednesday by the officers of the club This meeting was in a way quite unique because everyone brought a small present for Mrs. A. W. Seebart and her new baby boy. The gifts were all gathered together and taken over to her house where she received them with great surprise.

Most of the business meeting was taken up in considering the purchase of a new gas stove for the Guild within the next month. Among the visitors was an out of town guest, Mrs. J. W. Barnicott, of Auburn.

Four new members were received.

Mrs. Roland Bendel Heads Book Section

The first meeting of the Book Review Section of the Women's City Club of Oakland was held on Friday morning, October 19th, at 10:30, in the East room of the club building. One book is thoroughly reviewed at each meeting. Last Friday the program consisted of a very delightful review by Mrs. F. V. Cornish, of Berkeley, on "The Bridge of San Luis Rey," by Thornton Wilder. Mrs. Roland Bendel, of Niles, presided as chairman of the section. During the year Mrs. Bendel plans to go into each field of literature, with one book for each program and a "Sentence Review" of half a dozen books, given as a suggestive reading list for the current month. "The Mother" is the book selected for review by Mrs. Geo. Coit, of Centerville, at the next meeting on November 23rd.

There were thirty-two present at the first meeting, and with at least a dozen more already signed up, the section promises to assume large proportions. Members of the Women's City Club are admitted free but non-club members are charged a fee of two dollars, payable on registration.

TEACHERS WILL MEET

About seventy educatrors are expected to attend the Washington Township Teachers' Association at the Centerville school on the evening of October 31. There will be special music and a speaker from the University of California.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Hunt and two children of Whittier arrived Tuesday for a visit of several days with Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Hunt.

Local Women Attending Elaborate Parent-Teacher Reciprocity Dinner

Mrs. Harvey Braun, president of the Parent-Teacher Association of Niles Grammar school; Mrs. E. Habenicht, secretary of the association; and Mrs. Frank McGowan, are attending the 16th District reciprocity luncheon to be given at the new Woman's City Club in Oakland at 12:15 o'clock today.

This is one of the outstanding events of the year on the P. T. A. calendar, as seen from the following article clipped from Sunday's Oakland Tribune which contains so many items of interest to local P. T. A.'s that it is quoted in full:

Parent-teacher leaders and educators from two counties will be guests next Thursday when the Sixteenth District, California Congress of Parents and Teachers, celebrates its annual reciprocity luncheon in the Oakland Women's City Club at 1924 Alice street.

Mrs. J. R. Sutton, junior past president at Oakland Council, has been named chairman for the reciprocal event, which is expected to assemble approximately five hundred members and friends.

The luncheon will follow the morning session of the dictrict's monthly meeting called for 10:30 o'clock Thursday morning in the assembly room of the City Club with Mrs. F. V. Vollmer in the chair.

Professor Noel Keyes, associate professor of education at the University of California, will be the honor guest and principal speaker for the luncheon program. Professor Keyes is Rhodes scholar of Oxford, England, served in the world war and was dean of education at the Christian College of Canton, China. His topic will be "Student Revolt in China."

A musical program will feature Mrs. William Garritt Orton, of Berkeley, who will sing two groups of songs including "Blackbird Song," by Cyril Scott, an Ojibway Indian love song, by John W. Metcalf, "Jibiwanisi"; "Mal D'Amour," by A. Buzzi-Teccia, and "O Trima Bera," by P. A. Tirindelli.

At the speaker's table with Mrs. Vollmer and Mrs. Sutton will be Mrs. P. J. Kramer, sixth vice-president of the state congress; Mrs. B. C. Clark, president of Second District; Mrs. Daisy Short, of the state board of education; Mrs. Charles Quayle, state chairman of recreation; Mrs. R. L. Currier, state chairman of education; Mrs. J. E. Squire, bureau of handicapped children; Mrs. W. H. Wood, state executive secretary; D. L. Martin, superintendent of schools in Alameda county; W. H. Hanlon, Contra Costa county superintendent; W. E. Givens, Oakland schools superintendent; William G. Paden, of Alameda schools; Lewis Smith, of Berkeley schools and W. T. Helms of Richmond schools.

The Sixth District council president who will also have places of honor are: Mrs. J. M. Turner of Berkeley; Mrs. R. L. Bulger, of East Alameda county; Mrs. T. D. Graham, of Mount Diablo; Mrs. L. K. Beever, of Oakland; Mrs. C. R. Blake of Richmond; and Mrs. Frank Schmidt, of Victoria Link.

The ushers and hostesses will be Mrs. M. E. Webb, of Alameda; Mrs. L. J. Thomas, of Richmond; Mrs. Frank Schmidt, of Pittsburg; Mrs. E. E. Humann, of Hayward; Mrs. C. E. Nagel, of Oakland and Mrs. W. C. Hicks, of Walnut Creek.

In charge of decorations for the luncheon is Mrs. R. C. Blake, of Richmond.

The California state board has taken its stand on several measures to come up at the November election. It has endorsed measure No. 6, which recommends the appointment of a state superintendent of schools by the state board of education; No. 12, which recommends equal educational opportunities for all handicapped children, and No. 4, the state park appropriation measure.

The state executives reached a decision that henceforth parent-teacher associations may give use of their platforms for speakers only on legislative measures that have had state congress endorsement. Such endorsement is to be given by presentation of resolution one day and carried by two-thirds majority vote, written ballot, the day following.

The board has reaffirmed its interest in the findings of the educational commission which is working on educational readjustment through some knd of county unit plan.

A move to establish credited parent-teacher courses in California state colleges and normal schools has resulted in the request from eight state teachers' colleges in California for a summer college credit course in parent-teacher leadership, it was announced. The Founders' Day Memorial fund will be used to help finance this beginning.

A spiritual training course, under the state chairmanship of Mrs. Dana Thomas of San Jose, will be featured during the year, it was decided. A correspondence course in seven lessons on "Spiritual Training Standards in Associations" has been prepared and will be released to parent-teachers throughout the state in the following order: 1, Loyalty; 2, Self Control; 3, Obedience; 4, Honesty; 5, Courage; 6, Happiness; 7, Love of Beauty or Order.

State conferences will be held under the various vice-presidents throughout California. Of interest to local mothers is the conference to be held in Berkeley High school on October 27, when Mrs. P. J. Kramer, of Oakland, sixth vice-president and state chairman of home service, will preside. It is to be open to all members of the Sixteenth District.

Sacramento has been chosen by the state board as the setting for the annual conclave during the week of May 21.
